

Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement

This document is legally binding and dated [mm/dd/yyyy]

Parties

[insert company or individual details] and [insert company or individual details]

Why?

The purpose of this agreement is to ensure that we can share confidential matters freely as we explore our business relationship.

Purpose

We will not share any confidential information shared by any means with anyone else.

What is confidential information?

Anything either party writes or says in any form, whether technical or non-technical information.

What can a Party say?

This agreement does not apply to any information that is already in the public domain or in the event a court or government requires disclosure.

How long does the agreement last?

The agreement lasts for twelve months and the purpose continues following termination.

Obligations

Either party will keep all confidential information safe and secure and return any materials, physical or digital, and delete and copies when the agreement ends.

Disagreements

This agreement is subject to the law of [Insert State] and any dispute can be resolved through the [Insert State] Court or the Federal Court where the business is located.

Acceptance

Our signatures below confirm we understand and agree to this document.

---

---